What Audiences Say:

"Ranjith Venkatesh moderated our last conference. He did an excellent job. In his charming way he brought the speakers on stage and introduced them to the audience. Both the speaker and the audience were very well prepared. Each speaker was received so warmly by the audience. Also at the end of the speech the speaker and the audience were the center of attention. With his elegant, friendly manner he made it easier for the speaker to get started. Ranjith Venkatesh has a clear pronunciation and a clear voice. His English is also very easy to understand for non-native speakers. His humour spreads a good mood.
